(Modul 17: Proses Pengeditan)

Video 17a: Introduction to Editing and Checklists

(Video 17a: Pengantar Pengeditan dan Daftar Periksa)

Bismillah. Assalamua'laikum. Today we will discuss editing, which we know is the fourth step of the writing process. By the end of this session, you will be able to analyze writing and find errors within it. You will be able to edit errors before submitting the final draft.

You will also be able to engage in peer editing. Bismillah. Assalamua'laikum. Hari ini kita akan membahas tentang pengeditan, yang kita tahu merupakan langkah keempat dari proses penulisan. Di akhir sesi ini, kalian akan dapat menganalisis tulisan dan menemukan kesalahan di dalamnya. Kalian dapat mengedit kesalahan sebelum mengirimkan draf akhir. Kalian juga dapat terlibat dalam pengeditan rekan.

Previously, we had an editing checklist. This is one of the checklists that you can use to perform editing. It can be found in Introduction to Academic Writing on page 43.

Sebelumnya, kita memiliki daftar periksa pengeditan. Ini adalah salah satu daftar periksa yang dapat kalian gunakan untuk melakukan pengeditan. Ini dapat ditemukan di Introduction to Academic Writing (Pengantar Penulisan Akademik) di halaman 43.

There are two things I want to say about this checklist. It combines the processes of revising and editing. As we have mentioned before, these are two separate steps. So, I strongly suggest that you use the second page, which we will look at, or the bottom part of this editing checklist, and perhaps use the top part for the revision stage, or use a different checklist entirely for the revision stage. Dua hal yang ingin saya katakan tentang daftar periksa ini. Ini menggabungkan proses merevisi dan mengedit. Seperti yang telah kita sebut sebelumnya, ini adalah dua langkah yang terpisah. Jadi saya benar-benar menyarankan agar kalian menggunakan halaman kedua, yang akan kita lihat, atau bagian bawah daftar periksa pengeditan ini dan gunakan bagian atas mungkin untuk tahap revisi, atau gunakan daftar periksa lain untuk tahap revisi.

The second thing I want to mention about the checklist is that it is the one you will use if you are revising, or if you are helping your peer to revise. So, let's just skip through it. As we mentioned before, it is best that before you submit the final draft, you ask someone to read your work for you. So, what we are going to do is focus on how you help others in reading. How do we do that? We will also look at some examples. Hal kedua yang ingin saya sebutkan tentang daftar periksa adalah bahwa ini adalah daftar periksa yang akan kalian gunakan jika kalian merevisi, atau jika kalian membantu rekan kalian untuk merevisi. Jadi, mari kita lewati saja. Seperti yang kita sebutkan sebelumnya, sebaiknya sebelum kalian menyerahkan draf akhir, mintalah seseorang untuk membaca karya kalian untuk kalian. Jadi, yang akan kita lakukan adalah fokus pada bagaimana kalian membantu orang lain dalam membaca. Bagaimana cara melakukannya? Kita juga akan melihat beberapa contoh.

We know that at the editing stage, we focus on grammar, mechanics, spelling, and punctuation. We are not concerned with content; that has already been discussed in the revision stage. So, now is the time for writing mechanics; it is time to take out the dictionary and make sure that you have spelled words correctly. Kita tahu pada tahap pengeditan, kita fokus pada tata bahasa, mekanis, ejaan, dan tanda baca. Kita tidak peduli dengan konten; itu sudah dibahas di tahap revisi. Jadi, sekarang waktunya mekanis tulisan; saatnya untuk mengeluarkan kamus dan pastikan bahwa kalian telah mengeja kata dengan benar.

Now is the time to use capitalization and apply all grammatical rules to your writing. Alright, and it does not mean that the first time you write, you just put a period just for the sake of writing. No! Of course, when you write for the first time, you apply what you know. However, you only come back at this stage to check and make sure that everything is accurate. Sekarang saatnya untuk menggunakan huruf kapital dan menerapkan semua aturan tata bahasa pada tulisan kalian. Baiklah, dan bukan berarti bahwa pertama kali kalian menulis, kalian hanya memberi titik sekedar menulis. Tidak! Tentu saja saat kalian menulis pertama kali, kalian menerapkan apa yang kalian ketahui. Namun, kalian hanya kembali pada tahap ini untuk memeriksa dan memastikan bahwa semuanya akurat.

Alright, so you check the periods at the ends of sentences. Have you used capital letters where necessary? Is the verb correct? Are commas used correctly? You will also check sentence structure. Does every sentence contain at least one subject and one verb and express a complete idea? Does the composition contain simple and compound sentences?. Baiklah, jadi kalian memeriksa titik untuk akhir kalimat. Apakah sudah menggunakan huruf kapital jika diperlukan? Apakah kata kerjanya benar? Apakah koma digunakan dengan benar? Kalian juga akan memeriksa struktur kalimat. Apakah setiap kalimat mengandung setidaknya satu subjek dan satu kata kerja dan mengungkapkan gagasan yang lengkap? Apakah komposisi mengandung kalimat sederhana dan majemuk?

As we said before, you must vary sentence structure, not just use simple sentences. You must use compound sentences. Are compound sentences punctuated correctly? Of course, we know if we have a compound sentence, we need a conjunction and a comma in the middle. Once again, these are questions you can ask yourself and also questions you can look for when examining someone else's writing. Seperti yang kita katakan sebelumnya, kalian harus memvariasikan struktur kalimat, tidak hanya menggunakan kalimat sederhana. Kalian harus menggunakan kalimat majemuk. Apakah kalimat majemuk diberi tanda baca dengan benar? Tentu saja kita tahu jika kita memiliki kalimat majemuk, kita membutuhkan kata sambung dan koma di tengah. Sekali lagi, ini adalah pertanyaan yang dapat kalian tanyakan pada diri sendiri dan juga pertanyaan yang dapat kalian cari ketika sedang memeriksa tulisan orang lain.

On page 85, basically, it is the same, but there are some additional questions. Are verb forms correct? If they write a narrative with a past setting, then all verbs must be in the past tense. Are commas used correctly? This is a problem many people have, which is not using commas correctly. Pada halaman 85, pada dasarnya ini sama, tetapi ada beberapa pertanyaan tambahan. Apakah bentuk kata kerja benar? Jika mereka menulis narasi dengan latar masa lalu, maka semua kata kerja harus dalam bentuk lampau. Apakah koma digunakan dengan benar? Ini adalah masalah yang dimiliki banyak orang yaitu tidak menggunakan koma dengan benar.

Alright, does every sentence have a subject and a verb that expresses a complete idea? Not just a fragment. Does every verb agree with its subject? Subject-verb agreement. Okay, if you are talking about someone, if it is a third-person singular, for example, "my father," then you must make sure that the verb agrees with the subject. Baiklah, apakah setiap kalimat memiliki subjek dan kata kerja yang mengungkapkan gagasan lengkap? Tidak hanya sebagian (fragmen). Apakah setiap kata kerja sesuai dengan subjeknya? Kesesuaian kata kerja-subjek. Oke, jika kalian berbicara tentang seseorang, jika itu orang ketiga tunggal, misalnya "ayah saya," maka kalian harus memastikan bahwa kata kerjanya harus sesuai dengan subjeknya.

So, "My father walks to the Mosque every day." Not, "My father walk to the Mosque every day." Okay, alright. Once again, you check your paper, and make sure you can answer these questions. These are the questions you will ask when checking your friend's paper. Jadi, "Ayah saya walks (berjalan) ke Masjid setiap hari." Bukan, "Ayah saya walk (berjalan) ke Masjid setiap hari." Oke, baiklah. Sekali lagi, kalian memeriksa makalah kalian, dan pastikan kalian bisa menjawab pertanyaan-pertanyaan ini. Ini adalah pertanyaan yang akan kalian tanyakan ketika memeriksa makalah teman kalian.

Alright. Then there are correction marks that you can use if you are checking someone else's work. Of course, if you are checking your own, you just go ahead and change what is necessary. Okay, once again, do not change their paper. So, you do not need to fix their errors; if a capital letter is needed, you do not need to cross it out and change it to a capital. That will not help the person. So what you need to do is, for example, if they have a capitalization error, write three lines under the letter so they can fix it themselves. Baiklah. Lalu ada tanda koreksi yang dapat kalian gunakan jika kalian memeriksa milik orang lain. Tentu saja jika kalian memeriksa punya sendiri, kalian tinggal melanjutkan dan mengubah apa yang diperlukan. Oke, sekali lagi, jangan mengubah makalah mereka. Jadi, kalian tidak perlu memperbaiki kesalahan mereka; jika perlu huruf kapital, kalian tidak perlu mencoretnya, lalu mengubahnya menjadi kapital. Itu tidak akan membantu orang tersebut. Jadi yang perlu kalian lakukan adalah, misalnya mereka salah huruf kapital, tuliskan 3 baris di bawah huruf tersebut agar mereka bisa memperbaikinya sendiri.

These are some other marks we will use. If a comma is needed, you can write an arrow and then a comma underneath it. And these are correction marks; everyone is familiar with these correction marks. If there is a spelling error, circle it. Okay, we use this symbol here to add words. If adding words, use this. If it is confusing, you can put a question mark. If you are helping them during the revision stage, you will not use these; these are for the editing stage. Ini adalah beberapa tanda lain yang akan kita gunakan. Jika diperlukan koma, kalian bisa menulis tanda panah lalu koma di bawahnya. Dan ini adalah tanda koreksi; semua orang akrab dengan tanda-tanda koreksi ini. Jika ada kesalahan ejaan, lingkari. Oke, kita menggunakan simbol ini di sini untuk menambahkan kata-kata. Jika menambahkan kata-kata, gunakan ini. Jika membingungkan, kalian bisa beri tanda tanya. Jika kalian membantu mereka selama tahap revisi, kalian tidak akan menggunakan ini; ini untuk tahap pengeditan.

Video 17b: Sentence Editing Exercises

(Video 17b: Latihan Pengeditan Kalimat)

Welcome back. We will do some editing exercises. Let's look at the website here. In each of the following sentences, you must remove a word or phrase so that the sentence is grammatically correct. Identify the word that needs to be removed. Selamat datang kembali. Kita akan mengerjakan beberapa latihan pengeditan. Mari kita lihat situs web yang ada di sini. Di setiap kalimat berikut, Anda harus menghapus kata atau frasa agar kalimat benar secara tata bahasa. Identifikasi kata yang perlu dihapus.

Often, when we edit and write articles, there might be an extra word there that we need to remove. A word that might be there by mistake. Maybe we changed something during revision and forgot to delete a word. So you need to train your eyes to be able to find those errors. Sering kali, ketika kita mengedit dan menulis artikel, mungkin ada kata tambahan di sana yang perlu kita hapus. Sebuah kata yang mungkin ada karena kesalahan. Mungkin kita mengubah sesuatu selama revisi dan lupa menghapus sebuah kata. Jadi kalian perlu melatih mata kalian agar bisa menemukan kesalahan tersebut.

[Sentence 1]: "Where is Samuel? He is working at outside 10 minutes ago." What word needs to be removed? Again, as I mentioned before, it always helps when you read aloud. When reading aloud, you can find errors versus just relying on your eyes. [Kalimat 1]: "Di mana Samuel? Dia sedang bekerja at outside (di luar) 10 menit yang lalu." Kata apa yang perlu dihapus? Sekali lagi, seperti yang saya sebutkan sebelumnya, selalu membantu ketika kalian membaca dengan suara keras. Ketika membaca dengan lantang, kalian bisa menemukan kesalahan dibandingkan hanya mengandalkan mata.

So, when reading aloud, you are not just using your eyes, but also your ears. These are two senses working together helping you to identify errors. Alright. Good job! We do not need "at." There is no preposition before an adverb. "At outside." No. "Outside" is an adverb. We do not need to say "at outside," just say "working outside". Jadi, ketika membaca lantang, kalian tidak hanya menggunakan mata, tetapi juga telinga. Ini adalah 2 indra yang bekerja sama membantu kalian untuk mengidentifikasi kesalahan. Baiklah. Kerja bagus! Kita tidak perlu "at". Tidak ada preposisi sebelum kata keterangan. "At outside". Tidak. "Outside" adalah kata keterangan. Kita tidak perlu mengatakan "at outside", cukup katakan "working outside".

[Sentence 2]: "There are more unemployed compared to than ever before." What word or phrase do we not need? Okay, good! "Compared to." So just say "there are more unemployed than ever before." We do not need "compared to." The words "compared to" and "than" are basically the same. [Kalimat 2]: "Ada lebih banyak pengangguran compared to (dibandingkan dengan) than (daripada) sebelumnya." Kata atau frasa apa yang tidak kita butuhkan? Oke, bagus! "Compared to". Jadi cukup katakan "there are more unemployed than ever before". Kita tidak perlu "compared to". Kata "compared to" dan "than" pada dasarnya sama.

[Sentence 3]: "My grandfather he used to have an old Rolls Royce." What is the extra word? Once again, when reading, you can hear it, but when just looking, sometimes it is overlooked. "My grandfather." Okay, very good. What is not needed? So it should be "My grandfather used to have an old Rolls Royce." [Kalimat 3]: "Kakek saya he (dia) dulu punya Rolls Royce tua." Apa kata tambahannya? Sekali lagi, ketika membaca, kalian dapat mendengarnya, tetapi ketika hanya melihat, terkadang terabaikan. "Kakek saya." Oke, sangat bagus. Apa yang tidak diperlukan? Jadi seharusnya "My grandfather used to have an old Rolls Royce."

[Sentence 4]: "She is in a bad mood. Why do you not send her some flowers?" Okay, what word here do we not need? Okay, good job! "You." We can say, "Why do you not send her some flowers?" or "Why don't you send her flowers?" However, here we can simply say, "Why not send her some flowers?" We do not need the pronoun. Good job! [Kalimat 4]: "Suasana hatinya sedang buruk. Mengapa you (Anda) tidak mengiriminya beberapa bunga?" Oke, apa kata di sini yang tidak kita butuhkan? Oke, kerja bagus! "You". Kita bisa mengatakan, "Why do you not send her some flowers?" atau "Why don't you send her flowers?" Namun, di sini kita hanya bisa mengatakan, "Why not send her some flowers?" Kita tidak membutuhkan kata ganti. Kerja bagus!

[Sentence 5]: "The question is whether the man can be trusted with." What is the extra word here? Good job! "With." So it should be "The question is whether the man can be trusted." If you use "with" after trusted, then you need an object. The object of the preposition. So, "The question is whether the man can be trusted with your money." But we cannot end it with "with". [Kalimat 5]: "Pertanyaannya adalah apakah pria itu bisa dipercaya with (dengan)." Apa kata tambahannya di sini? Kerja bagus! "With". Jadi seharusnya "The question is whether the man can be trusted." Jika kalian menggunakan "with" setelah trusted, maka kalian memerlukan objek. Objek dari preposisi tersebut. Jadi, "Pertanyaannya adalah apakah pria itu bisa dipercaya dengan uang Anda." Namun kita tidak bisa mengakhirinya dengan "with".

[Sentence 6]: "They can't decide whether they should to get married now or later." Even this is hard to read. Incorrect. Alright, so what is the extra word? Good job, "to." We do not need "to" here. So "They can't decide whether they should get married." We never say "should" followed by "to". [Kalimat 6]: "Mereka tidak dapat memutuskan apakah mereka should (harus) to menikah sekarang atau nanti." Bahkan ini sulit untuk dibaca. Salah. Baiklah, jadi apa kata tambahannya? Kerja bagus "to". Kita tidak perlu "to" di sini. Jadi "They can't decide whether they should get married." Kita tidak pernah mengatakan "should" diikuti dengan "to".

[Sentence 7]: "I don't want that woman ever over again coming here." What is the extra word? It is quite clear. It should just be "ever again," not "ever over." [Kalimat 7]: "Saya tidak ingin wanita itu datang ke sini ever over lagi." Kata tambahannya apa? Sudah cukup jelas. Seharusnya hanya "ever again", bukan "ever over".

[Sentence 8]: "We are still waiting for instructions." What is the problem here? Good! We do not need the word "for." You can say "We are waiting for instructions" or "awaiting instructions" without "for." Good! [Kalimat 8]: "Kami masih waiting (menunggu) for instruksi." Apa masalahnya di sini? Bagus! Kita tidak butuh kata "for". Kalian bisa mengatakan "We are waiting for instructions" atau "awaiting instructions" tanpa "for". Bagus!

[Sentence 9]: "I have just been given to a lovely picture." Okay, what is the extra word? Good! We do not need "to." "I have just been given a lovely picture." [Kalimat 9]: "Saya juga baru saja given (diberi) to gambar yang indah." Oke, apa kata tambahannya? Bagus! Kita tidak perlu "to". "I have just been given a lovely picture."

[Sentence 10]: "We were all bought for nice presents." What word do we not need? Good! "For." "We were all bought nice presents." When do we use "for"? Good! When we put someone's name, putting the object after "for." But we will not have the passive form. So the sentence becomes "We bought presents for our family." So the sentence must be in the active form too. [Kalimat 10]: "Kami semua bought (dibeli) for hadiah bagus." Apa kata yang tidak kita butuhkan? Bagus! "For". "We were all bought nice presents." Kapan kita menggunakan "for"? Bagus! Ketika kita meletakkan nama seseorang, meletakkan objek setelah "for". Namun kita tidak akan memiliki bentuk pasif. Sehingga kalimatnya menjadi "We bought presents for our family" (Kami membeli hadiah untuk keluarga kami). Jadi kalimatnya harus dalam bentuk aktif juga.

[Sentence 11]: "Do not expect quick results when you start to learning a language." This is a common mistake for foreign speakers. Can you find the error? Good! We do not need "to" here. Okay, if you want to say, if you want to keep "to," then you need "to" with the infinitive form, not the ING form which is the progressive form. "Do not expect quick results when you start to learn a language" or "when you start learning a language." You cannot use "to" with an ING verb. [Kalimat 11]: "Jangan berharap hasil yang cepat ketika Anda start to learning (mulai belajar) bahasa." Ini adalah kesalahan umum untuk penutur asing. Bisakah kalian menemukan kesalahannya? Bagus! Kita tidak perlu "to" di sini. Oke, jika kalian ingin mengatakan, jika kalian ingin mempertahankan "to", maka kalian perlu "to" dengan bentuk infinitif bukan bentuk ING yang merupakan bentuk progresif. "Do not expect quick results when you start to learn a language" atau "when you start learning a language." Kalian tidak bisa menggunakan "to" dengan kata kerja ING.

[Sentence 12]: "You need not to have woken me up." Which is the word we do not need? Okay, we do not need "to." Good! "You need not have woken me up." Okay, good job.

[Kalimat 12]: "Anda need not to (tidak perlu) membangunkan saya." Mana kata yang tidak kita butuhkan? Oke, kita tidak butuh "to". Bagus! "You need not have woken me up." Oke, kerja bagus.

Video 17c: Article Editing (Kelly's Podcast Article)

(Video 17c: Pengeditan Artikel (Artikel Siniar Kelly))

Welcome back. We will do some editing exercises, Insya Allah. Kelly has written an article about how to create a podcast before it is published in the school newspaper. Your task is to edit Kelly's work. Circle the errors you find in Kelly's article. Selamat datang kembali. Kita akan mengerjakan beberapa latihan pengeditan, insya Allah. Kelly telah menulis artikel tentang cara membuat sinia sebelum diterbitkan di koran sekolah. Tugas Anda adalah mengedit karya Kelly. Lingkari kesalahan yang Anda temukan di artikel Kelly.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 1] "Create a podcast! Podcasts are a rapidly growing and fun new way to reach an audience Do you have something you want to shar with others? Here is a five step process to turn your idea into a podcast"

Okay, let's go back to the first paragraph. What errors do you find? Okay, good! There is no period after the word "audience." Good! "Do you have something you want to shar with others?" What is wrong in that sentence? Good! There should be the letter 'e' here; there is a misspelled word. Maybe this is just a typo. Oke, mari kita kembali ke paragraf pertama. Kesalahan apa yang kalian temukan? Oke, bagus! Tidak ada titik setelah kata "audience". Bagus! "Apakah Anda memiliki sesuatu yang ingin Anda shar (bagikan) dengan orang lain?" Apa yang salah dalam kalimat itu? Bagus! Seharusnya di sini ada huruf 'e', ada kata yang salah eja. Mungkin ini hanya salah ketik.

"Here is a five step process to turn your idea into a podcast." In the original article, they wrote the word "podcast" separately. The word "cast" is on a separate line. So the word is separated. Even though "podcast" is one word. If we do not have enough space, then we need to use a hyphen. "Berikut adalah proses lima langkah untuk mengubah ide Anda menjadi sinia." Di artikel aslinya, mereka menulis kata "podcast" secara terpisah. Kata "cast" ada di baris terpisah. Jadi kata tersebut terpisah. Padahal "podcast" itu satu kata. Jika kita tidak memiliki cukup ruang, maka kita perlu menggunakan tanda hubung.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 2] "Set a goal. A successful podcast is focused. It has a purpose. what do you want to tell listeners. Who are you interviewing? Who is the person most likely to want or need to hear your podcast? How long will your podcast be? Is it a single podcast or a series? Make sure you have a good way to record your podcast. Consider asking for help from an adult who has quality equipment."

Alright, let's see what errors are here. Good job! This should be a capital 'W'. "What do you want to tell listeners." Is this a question? Yes, this is a question, so we need a question mark. Good job! "Who are you interviewing? Who is the person most likely to want to hear about your podcast?" Do you see any more errors in this paragraph? Okay, I think that is all. Baiklah, mari kita lihat kesalahan apa yang ada di sini. Kerja bagus! Seharusnya ini huruf 'W' kapital. "Apa yang ingin Anda sampaikan kepada pendengar." Apakah ini sebuah pertanyaan? Ya, ini sebuah pertanyaan, jadi kita membutuhkan tanda tanya. Kerja bagus! "Siapa yang Anda wawancarai? Siapa orang yang paling ingin mendengar tentang siniar Anda?" Apakah kalian melihat kesalahan yang lebih banyak dalam paragraf ini? Oke, saya kira itu saja.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 3] "Prepare for the interview. Make a list of topics. How to interview about each topic? Consider interviewing a doctor for health related topics or a teacher for education related topics."

"Education related," and Microsoft Word points out the error for us, and I am sure most of you already know how to do this. You simply right-click then see what the error is. Here there is no hyphen; there should be one. Okay, "education-related topics." Alright, what other errors are in that paragraph? Okay, "interviewees." Once again we can right-click and see what is suggested. Alright. Are there any more errors in that paragraph? Make sure they can explain... It seems nothing is wrong. "Education related" dan Microsoft Word menunjukkan kesalahannya untuk kita dan saya yakin sebagian besar dari kalian sudah tahu cara melakukan ini. Kalian cukup klik kanan kemudian lihat apa kesalahannya. Di sini tidak ada tanda hubung; seharusnya ada. Oke "education-related topics". Baiklah, kesalahan apa lagi yang ada di paragraf itu? Oke, "interviewees". Sekali lagi kita bisa klik kanan dan melihat apa yang disarankan. Baiklah. Ada lagi kesalahan di paragraf itu? Pastikan mereka dapat menjelaskan... Sepertinya tidak ada yang salah.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 4] "Conduct the interview. Be positive and enthusiastic. Make sure the person you are interviewing feels comfortable they take pauses when speaking and repeat if necessary. Record the interview in a quiet place because microphones can pick up background noise. Be well read, but not too formal or scripted. Don't be afraid to let the interview take a new direction, if the person you are interviewing has something interesting to discuss. Don't forget to take a photo of the person you are interviewing which can be used to advertise and identify your podcast."

What other errors do you find here? As we said before, Microsoft Word is very helpful. However, sometimes Microsoft Word misleads us and corrects things that are not correct, so it cannot be 100% relied upon. "Well read," let's right-click and see what is suggested. It is suggested with a hyphen or without a hyphen as two separate words. Kesalahan apa lagi yang kalian temukan di sini? Seperti yang kita katakan sebelumnya, Microsoft Word sangat membantu. Namun terkadang Microsoft Word menyesatkan kita dan memperbaiki hal-hal yang tidak benar, jadi tidak bisa diandalkan 100%. "Well read" mari klik kanan dan lihat apa yang disarankan. Disarankan dengan tanda hubung atau tanpa tanda hubung dua kata terpisah.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 5] "Create the episode. and recruit test listeners. Now listen to what you have recorded. What stands out? Does your program contain interesting and trustworthy information? Let your friends and family listen and give feedback. Edit every time someone says 'hm'."

What error is there? It is here. We do not need a comma. There are no errors at all, except here. If we say "hm," if we write: Every time someone says "hm," then we need quotation marks. Kesalahan apa yang ada di sana? Ada di sini. Kita tidak perlu koma. Tidak ada kesalahan apa-apa, kecuali di sini. Jika kita mengatakan "hm," jika kita menulis: Setiap kali seseorang berkata "hm" maka kita perlu tanda kutip.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 6] "Create a marketing and distribution plan This last step is important. How will you tell people that your podcast exists? Find an online platform to host your series. With SoundCloud, you can embed your podcast into social media posts easily. Then publish."

So, what errors do you find in this paragraph? Good, there are two sentences embedded into one. So what do we need to do with this comma (or lack thereof)? Yes, we need to add a period and start a new sentence. Alright, are there other errors in that paragraph? Okay, it looks like the rest are fine. Jadi, kesalahan apa yang kalian temukan di paragraf ini? Bagus, ada dua kalimat yang disematkan menjadi satu. Jadi apa yang perlu kita lakukan dengan koma ini? Ya, kita perlu menambahkan titik dan memulai kalimat baru. Baiklah, ada kesalahan lain di paragraf itu? Oke, sepertinya yang lainnya baik-baik saja.

Video 17d: Biography Editing (Ralph A. Hunt)

(Video 17d: Pengeditan Biografi (Ralph A. Hunt))

Welcome back. Let's practice editing again. Instruction: Read the following excerpt from Dominion's Strong Men and Women's Excellence in Leadership Series... Edit the section for common errors related to grammar and mechanics usage. Selamat datang kembali. Mari kita berlatih pengeditan lagi. Instruksi: Baca kutipan berikut dari Dominion's Strong Men and Women's Excellence in Leadership Series... Edit bagian untuk kesalahan umum terkait penggunaan tata bahasa dan mekanis.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 1] "Growing up in Oxford North Carolina eight children of Johnnie and Amanda Hunt enjoyed affection close family ties and adequate housing. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's lack of education did not hinder their efforts to guide their children toward a better life. While walking this path they taught values and important lessons about life, work, and education. These values has consistently guided their seventh child, Ralph A. Hunt, Sr. who has become one of the most dedicated effective and influential government leaders in the history of North Carolina."

Let's work on the first paragraph. What is missing here? Let's start with the first sentence. "Growing up in Oxford, North Carolina eight children of Johnnie and Amanda Hunt." What is missing? Okay, excellent. There is a city and state that needs a comma here. "Growing up in Oxford, North Carolina." In this case, we also need a comma after Carolina. Mari kita kerjakan paragraf pertama tersebut. Apa yang hilang di sini? Mari kita mulai dengan kalimat pertama. "Tumbuh di Oxford, Carolina Utara delapan anak dari Johnny dan Amanda Hunt." Apa yang hilang? Oke, bagus sekali. Ada kota dan negara bagian yang membutuhkan koma di sini. "Tumbuh di Oxford, Carolina Utara." Dalam hal ini kita juga membutuhkan koma setelah Carolina.

"Enjoyed affection." There are words in a series here, so what do we need to do? Yes, we need to put commas. So there is "affection, close family ties, good! adequate housing, food, and clothing." In the UK, a comma is not needed before "and," but in America, you must use a comma. So there is a slight difference between comma usage in those two countries. Because I am American, I will write a comma there. "Menikmati kasih sayang." Ada kata-kata dalam seri di sini, jadi apa yang kita perlu lakukan? Ya, kita perlu memberi koma. Jadi ada "kasih sayang, ikatan keluarga yang erat, bagus! tempat tinggal, makanan, dan pakaian yang memadai." Di Inggris tidak perlu koma sebelum "dan" (and), tetapi di Amerika harus menggunakan koma. Jadi ada sedikit perbedaan antara penggunaan koma di kedua negara tersebut. Karena saya orang Amerika, saya akan menulis koma di situ.

"While walking this path they taught important values..." What is wrong here? Good, there is no comma after the word "path." "While walking this path, they taught..." "While walking this path they taught important values..." Apa yang salah di sini? Bagus, tidak ada koma setelah kata "path" (jalan). "Saat menempuh jalan ini, mereka mengajarkan..."

"These values has consistently guided their seventh child." What is wrong in this sentence? The verb and subject do not agree. If we say "values," it is the same as "they." So do we say "they has"? No, but we say "they have". "Nilai-nilai ini secara konsisten has (telah) membimbing anak ketujuh mereka." Apa yang salah dalam kalimat ini? Kata kerja dan subjek tidak sesuai. Jika kita mengatakan "values" itu sama dengan "they". Jadi apakah kita mengatakan "they has"? Tidak, tetapi kita mengatakan "they have".

"Ralph A. Hunt, Sr. who has become one of the leaders." What is missing here? Good, we need a comma here. "Dedicated, effective," comma, "and influential government leaders in the history of North Carolina." "Ralph A. Hunt, Sr. yang telah menjadi salah satu pemimpin." Apa yang hilang di sini? Bagus, kita butuh koma di sini. "Berdedikasi, efektif," koma, "dan pemimpin pemerintahan yang kuat dalam sejarah Carolina Utara."

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 2] "In 1950, Mr. Hunt enrolled at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, North Carolina, on a work-aid scholarship. He interrupted his education in 1953 when he went to serve his country during the Korean War. He returned to the University in 1955 and graduated a year later with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics. In 1964, he earned a Master's degree from North Carolina Central University."

"During the Korean War." Why is that underlined? It was missing, but this is the name of a specific war so it must be capitalized. Okay, also there is the word "University." We do not need to write "university" with a capital letter, unless mentioning the name of the university. "Selama perang Korea." Mengapa itu digarisbawahi? Itu hilang, tetapi ini adalah nama perang tertentu jadi harus ditulis dengan huruf besar. Oke, juga ada kata "Universitas." Kita tidak perlu menulis universitas dengan huruf kapital, kecuali jika menyebutkan nama universitasnya.

Alright. Is there anything else? How about the word "Mathematics"? Do we use capital letters for subjects? History, science, no! When do we use capital letters for subjects? Good! If it is the name of a language like English, Spanish. Alright is there anything else? No, everything looks fine. Baiklah. Apakah ada yang lain? Bagaimana dengan kata "matematika"? Apakah menggunakan huruf kapital untuk mata pelajaran? Sejarah, sains, tidak! Kapan kita menggunakan huruf kapital untuk mata pelajaran? Bagus! Kalau itu adalah nama bahasa seperti Inggris, Spanyol. Baiklah apakah ada lagi? Tidak, semuanya terlihat baik-baik saja.

Video 17e: Biography Editing (Mae C. Jemison & Annie Brown Kennedy)

(Video 17e: Pengeditan Biografi (Mae C. Jemison & Annie Brown Kennedy))

Welcome back. Let's finish editing some excerpts from Dominion's Strong Men and Women. Alright, there is Mae C. Jameson, M.D. Let's read it one paragraph at a time. Selamat datang kembali. Mari selesaikan pengeditan beberapa kutipan dari Dominion's Strong Men and Women. Baiklah, ada Mae C. Jameson, M. D. Mari kita edit. Kita akan membacanya satu paragraf satu waktu.

[Text for Analysis - Mae C. Jemison] "In the 1960s, as the Gemini and Apollo space flights were taking place, a little girl in Chicago watched in awe, saying softly to herself 'I want to do that'."

Do you see any errors in the first paragraph? Okay, "1960s." Good! We do not need an apostrophe there. "As the Gemini and Apollo space flights were taking place, a little girl in Chicago waved in awe, saying softly to herself." Okay, we have a problem here. There should be a comma, because there is a quotation. So we need a comma after the word "herself." What else? There is one complete quote before the word "I." So what else do we need? Good, we need quotation marks after the word "that." Good job. Apakah kalian melihat ada kesalahan di paragraf pertama? Oke, tahun 1960-an. Bagus! Kita tidak perlu apostrof di sana. "Ketika penerbangan luar angkasa Gemini dan Apollo terjadi, seorang gadis kecil di Chicago melambai dengan kagum, berkata dengan lembut pada dirinya sendiri." Oke, kita punya masalah di sini. Seharusnya ada koma, karena ada tanda kutip. Jadi kita butuh koma setelah kata "dirinya sendiri". Apa lagi? Ada satu kutipan lengkap sebelum kata "Saya". Jadi apa lagi yang kita butuhkan? Bagus, kita perlu tanda kutip setelah kata "itu". Kerja bagus.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 2] "This thoughtful child did not pause to wonder about being a female and an African-American, or about the possibility of her becoming an astronaut. May Jamison kept believing that this was her destiny. She realized education was her path to the stars and with her parents support, she could accomplish her mission. She prepared herself by reading books about astronomy and other sciences she also devoured science fiction. Her feet were planted firmly on the ground but she reached for the stars."

"With her parents support." First, the question is how many parents are we talking about? Usually when saying "parental support," usually we are talking about both parents. So what do we need to do here? If speaking about two people, we will assume it means both parents. Good! First add 's', then an apostrophe. Okay so "With her parents' support, she could accomplish her mission." "Dengan support (dukungan) parents (orang tua) nya." Pertama, pertanyaannya adalah berapa jumlah orang tua yang kita bicarakan? Biasanya ketika mengatakan "dukungan orang tua", biasanya berbicara tentang kedua orang tua. Jadi apa yang perlu kita lakukan di sini? Jika berbicara tentang kedua orang, kita akan menganggap yang dimaksud adalah kedua orang tua. Bagus! Pertama tambahkan 's', kemudian apostrof. Oke jadi "With her parents' support, she could accomplish her mission."

"She prepared herself by reading books about astronomy and other sciences." We need a comma here. Good! Because we are combining two independent phrases. "And she devoured..." There is a subject and a verb here and in the second part. So we need a comma here. "Dia mempersiapkan diri dengan membaca buku-buku tentang astronomi dan ilmu-ilmu lainnya." Kita membutuhkan koma di sini. Bagus! Karena kita menggabungkan dua frasa independen. "Dan dia melahap..." Ada subjek dan kata kerja di sini dan bagian kedua. Jadi kita membutuhkan koma di sini.

"Her feet were planted firmly on the ground but she reached for the stars." If there is no subject and verb after "but." Then there will be no comma. I think that is all. "Kakinya tertanam kuat di tanah tetapi dia meraih bintang-bintang." Jika tidak ada subjek dan kata kerja setelah "but" (tetapi). Maka tidak akan ada koma. Saya kira itu saja.

[Text for Analysis - Paragraph 3] "In 1987, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration selected Jamison for the Astronaut Corps. On September 12, 1992 she blasted into orbit aboard the space shuttle Endeavour. As a science mission specialist on the seven-day mission her primary task was to study bone cells during periods of weightlessness."

So, there are some errors here. What is the first error? Good! There is a date. After 1992 we need a comma. Alright, what else? "She blasted into orbit aboard the space shuttle," comma, "Endeavour." Because we have the name of the Space Shuttle. "As a science mission specialist on the seven-day mission," comma. There is a comma after the word mission. Okay, looks good. Jadi, ada beberapa kesalahan di sini. Apa kesalahan pertama?

Bagus! Ada tanggal. Setelah 1992 kita butuh koma. Baiklah, apa lagi? "Dia meluncur ke orbit dengan pesawat luar angkasa," koma, "Endeavour." Karena kita memiliki nama Pesawat Luar Angkasa. "Sebagai spesialis misi sains dalam misi tujuh hari tersebut," koma. Ada koma setelah kata misi. Oke, terlihat bagus.

[Text for Analysis - Annie Brown Kennedy] "Annie Brown Kennedy born and raised in Atlanta Georgia has shared her love of law and justice with citizens of Georgia who are in North Carolina and her family. Her quest to uphold the laws of the land began more than 50 years ago."

Okay, what is the first error? Good! We need a comma after her name. "Annie Brown Kennedy," comma, "born and raised in Atlanta," Georgia. Then what do we need after the word Georgia? Well, a comma, good! How about Atlanta? Atlanta is the city name, Georgia is the name of the state. What do we need between Atlanta and Georgia? Comma, good! Always put a comma between the city and state name. Baiklah, apa kesalahan pertama? Bagus! Kita butuh koma setelah namanya. "Annie Brown Kennedy," koma, "lahir dan dibesarkan di Atlanta," Georgia. Lalu apa yang kita butuhkan setelah kata Georgia? Yah, koma, bagus! Bagaimana dengan Atlanta? Atlanta adalah nama kotanya, Georgia adalah nama dari negara bagian. Apa yang kita butuhkan antara Atlanta dan Georgia? Koma, bagus! Selalu beri koma di antara nama kota dan negara bagian.

"Kennedy earned a bachelor's degree from Spelman College and a low degree from Howard University." Does that mean a "low" degree? This is why we must read everything before we start correcting. This should be "law." Law degree from Howard University. "Kennedy memperoleh gelar sarjana dari Perguruan Spelman dan gelar low (rendah) dari Universitas Howard." Apakah itu berarti gelar rendah? Inilah mengapa kita harus membaca semuanya sebelum kita mulai mengoreksi. Ini seharusnya "law" (hukum). Gelar sarjana hukum dari Universitas Howard.

"In 1955, her husband joined Kennedy in the practice of law, forming one of the first husband-wife law partnerships." If a comma is not put here, then it becomes "practice of law forming." Is that what is intended here? No, there must be a comma here. "Pada tahun 1955, suaminya bergabung dengan Kennedy dalam praktik hukum, membentuk salah satu kemitraan hukum suami-istri pertama." Jika di sini tidak diberi koma, maka menjadi "praktik pembentukan hukum." Apakah itu yang dimaksudkan di sini? Tidak, harus ada koma di sini.

"Kennedy, whose special interests include women's rights, African-Americans and children advises young people..." So what is missing here? Good! There is an appositive clause, there is a name here, then we say something about her. So we need a comma. After her name and after the word women. "Special interests include women's rights," comma, "African-Americans and children." Then we need a comma here. "Kennedy, yang minat khususnya mencakup hak-hak wanita, orang Afrika-Amerika dan anak-anak menasihati kaum muda..." Jadi apa yang hilang di sini? Bagus! Ada klausa apositif, ada nama di sini, kemudian kita mengatakan sesuatu tentang dia. Jadi kita membutuhkan koma. Setelah namanya dan setelah kata wanita. "Minat khususnya mencakup hak-hak wanita," koma, "orang Afrika-Amerika dan anak-anak." Lalu kita butuh koma di sini.

Welcome back. We have worked very hard, so we will end with a fun note. We will play a game. Welcome to copy editing. Hi, I am writing a news report, but unfortunately I made some mistakes. Can you help me fix them?. Selamat datang kembali. Kita telah bekerja sangat keras, jadi kita akan mengakhiri dengan catatan yang menyenangkan. Kita akan bermain permainan. Selamat datang untuk mengedit salinan. Hai, saya sedang menulis laporan berita, tetapi sayangnya saya membuat beberapa kesalahan. Bisakah Anda membantu saya memperbaikinya?

[Game Sentence 1]: "Is that Dudes toy?" We have to type this again. Alright, what is the error here? I assume "Dude" is the name. So where should the apostrophe be? It should be before the letter s. So let's try and see if we are correct. Oh, good job. [Kalimat Permainan 1]: "Is that Dudes toy?" (Apakah itu mainan Dude?) Kita harus mengetik ini lagi. Baiklah, apa kesalahannya di sini? Saya menganggap "Dude" itu adalah namanya. Jadi di mana letak apostrof yang seharusnya? Seharusnya sebelum huruf s. Jadi mari kita coba dan lihat apakah kita benar. Oh, kerja bagus.

[Game Sentence 2]: "Maggie wants you to visit her Whats New section." So let's see what the error is here. "Maggie wants you..." You cannot typo the section "Whats..." This must be given quotation marks, in the "Whats New" section... becoming "What's New." I don't know if it should be italicized. It seems it cannot be italicized. So we'll just see what happens. Excellent. My answer is correct. [Kalimat Permainan 2]: "Maggie ingin Anda mengunjungi bagian Whats New miliknya." Jadi mari kita lihat apa kesalahannya di sini. "Maggie ingin Anda..." Kalian tidak bisa salah ketik bagian "Whats..." Ini harus diberi tanda kutip, di bagian "Whats New"... menjadi "What's New". Saya tidak tahu apakah harus dicetak miring. Sepertinya tidak bisa dicetak miring. Jadi kita lihat saja apa yang terjadi. Bagus sekali. Jawaban saya benar.

[Game Sentence 3]: "The little monkey jumped up and down Dude smiled." "Dude smiled." This is a bit tricky. Are these two sentences or did Dude say this? I don't really understand if Dude is supposed to say this. We will try assuming Dude said this, so we need quotation marks. "The little monkey..." If not, then it should be two separate sentences. But let's try. "The little monkey jumped up and down," comma, quotation mark. "Dude smiled." They should have said "Dude said" so it is clear that this should have quotation marks, so let's see. Okay, that was my first thought. It is just two sentences. "Dude tersenyum." Ini sedikit rumit. Ini adalah dua kalimat atau Dude mengatakan ini? Saya tidak begitu paham apakah Dude seharusnya mengatakan ini. Kita akan mencoba berasumsi Dude mengatakan ini, jadi kita perlu tanda kutip. "Monyet kecil..." Jika bukan, maka

itu seharusnya menjadi dua kalimat terpisah. Tetapi mari kita coba. "Monyet kecil itu melompat-lompat," koma, tanda petik. "Dude tersenyum." Mereka seharusnya mengatakan "Dude berkata" agar jelas bahwa ini harusnya ada tanda kutip, jadi mari kita lihat. Oke, itu pikiran pertama saya. Itu hanya dua kalimat.

[Game Sentence 4]: "What is global warming asked Melissa." Okay this is clear now. Okay, use quotation marks. "What is global warming?" What is the problem here? This is a question, so we need a question mark before the quotation mark, asked Melissa. Do we need quotation marks here? No. "What is global warming?" asked Melissa. Excellent. "Apa itu pemanasan global tanya Melissa." Baik ini jelas sekarang. Oke, pakai tanda kutip. "Apa itu pemanasan global?" Apa masalahnya di sini? Ini pertanyaan, jadi kita perlu tanda tanya sebelum tanda kutip, tanya Melissa. Apakah kita perlu tanda kutip di sini? Tidak. "Apa itu pemanasan global?" Tanya Melissa. Bagus sekali.

[Game Sentence 5]: "Maggie carried the winning teams trophy in her plane." What is the problem here? "Maggie carried the winning teams trophy..." Okay, how many winning teams are we talking about? If only 1, then we must write "team's" (trophy + s apostrophe). "Trophy in her plane." I will change this. It should be "on her plane." "Maggie membawa trofi tim pemenang di pesawatnya." Apa masalahnya di sini? "Maggie membawa trofi tim pemenang..." Oke, berapa banyak tim pemenang yang sedang kita bicarakan? Jika hanya 1, maka kita harus menulis "team's" (trophy + s apostrof). "Trofi di pesawatnya." Saya akan mengubah ini. Seharusnya ini "on her plane".

Alright, I'm scared. Because maybe the correct one is "in her plane." "Maggie carried the winning team's trophy in her plane." Carry in a plane or carry on the plane. Alright let's see. I will be angry if this is not accepted. Okay, we do not say "in her plane." I disagree with you guys. It should be "on her plane" Maggie. Baiklah, saya jadi takut. Karena mungkin mereka yang benar adalah "in her plane". "Maggie membawa trofi tim pemenang di pesawatnya." Bawa in pesawat atau bawa on pesawat. Baiklah mari kita lihat. Saya akan marah jika ini tidak diterima. Oke, kita tidak mengatakan "in her plane". Saya tidak setuju dengan kalian. Seharusnya "on her plane" Maggie.

Thank you. I got 4 correct. Total there are 5, right? No, I will not play again because you marked one of my answers wrong. Thus we will end it. Hopefully, this session was useful. Wassalamua'laikum Warahmatullah Wabarakatuh. Terima kasih. Saya dapat 4 yang benar. Totalnya ada 5, kan? Tidak, saya tidak akan bermain lagi karena kalian menandai salah satu jawaban saya salah. Dengan demikian kita akan mengakhirinya. Semoga sesi ini bermanfaat. Wassalamua'laikum Warahmatullah Wabarakatuh.
