

Chapter 20: Subject-Verb Agreement

Video 20a: Introduction to Subjects and Verbs

Bismillah. Assalamua'laikum. Greetings to everyone. God willing, today we will discuss matching parts of a sentence or ensuring that the subject and the verb agree. By the end of this lesson, you will be able to identify errors in subject and verb agreement, and you will be able to use verbs that correctly agree with their subjects. (Terjemahan: Bismillah. Assalamua'laikum. Salam untuk semuanya. Insya Allah, hari ini kita akan membahas tentang mencocokkan bagian kalimat atau memastikan bahwa subjek dan kata kerjanya sesuai. Jadi, insya Allah di akhir pelajaran, kalian akan dapat mengidentifikasi kesalahan dalam kesesuaian subjek dan kata kerja, dan dapat menggunakan kata kerja yang sesuai dengan subjeknya.)

1. Basic Concepts

- What is a subject? Before we begin, let's do a quick review. You probably already know what subjects and verbs are, but let's take a moment to review them. The subject is who or what the sentence is about. It could be about a person, an animal, or a thing. For example: "After returning from the Mosque, Muhammad took a nap." Who are we talking about? We are talking about Muhammad, not the Mosque. Muhammad is the subject. (Terjemahan: Sebelum kita mulai, mari kita tinjau dengan cepat. Kalian pasti sudah tahu apa itu subjek dan kata kerja, namun mari luangkan waktu sejenak untuk mengulasnya. Subjek adalah siapa atau tentang apa kalimat itu. Bisa tentang seseorang, binatang, atau sesuatu. Contoh: "Setelah kembali dari Masjid, Muhammad tidur siang." Siapa yang kita bicarakan? Kita berbicara tentang Muhammad, bukan Masjid. Muhammad adalah subjeknya.)
- What is a verb? A verb explains the subject; it tells what the subject is or what the subject does or has done. For example: "Safiyya cleans her house every Saturday morning." What does Safiyya do? She cleans. Therefore, "cleans" is the verb, and "Safiyya" is the subject. It is crucial that the subject and verb agree, so we cannot say, "Safiyya clean her house every Saturday morning". We must select the right verb to follow the subject, as this is a common area where people make mistakes. We cannot say "Safiyya clean" because the verb "clean" is for the subjects I, we, they, and you. (Terjemahan: Kata kerja menjelaskan tentang subjek; mengatakan apa subjeknya atau apa yang dilakukan subjek. Contoh: "Safiyya membersihkan rumahnya setiap Sabtu pagi." Apa yang dilakukan Safiyya? Dia membersihkan. Jadi "membersihkan" adalah kata kerja, dan "Safiyya" adalah subjeknya. Sangat penting bahwa subjek dan kata kerja harus sesuai, jadi kita tidak akan mengatakan, "Safiyya clean her house every Saturday morning". Kita harus memastikan bahwa kita memilih kata kerja yang tepat untuk mengikuti subjek, karena ini adalah kesalahan umum. Kita tidak bisa mengatakan "Safiyya clean" karena kata kerja "clean" itu untuk subjek I, we, they, dan you.)

2. Subject-Verb Agreement Chart

Let's look at the subject and verb agreement chart.

- Regular Verbs: I pray, you pray, we pray, they pray. We do not say "I prays" or "you prays". However, for third-person singular (he, she, or it), we say: he prays, she prays, and it prays. There will always be an 's' at the end of the verb for third-person singular.
- "Be" Verbs: I am, you are, we are, they are, he is, she is, it is.

(Terjemahan: Mari kita lihat bagan kesesuaian kata kerja dan subjek.

- Kata Kerja Beraturan: I pray, you pray, we pray, they pray. Kita tidak akan mengatakan "I prays" atau "you prays". Namun, untuk orang ketiga tunggal (he, she, atau it), kita mengatakan: he prays, she prays, dan it prays. Akan selalu ada 's' di akhir kata kerja untuk orang ketiga tunggal.
- Kata Kerja "Be": I am, you are, we are, they are, he is, she is, it is.)

3. Exercise: Choosing the Correct Verb Form

Now, let's do some exercises by choosing the correct verb form for the subject. (Terjemahan: Sekarang, mari kita lakukan beberapa latihan dengan memilih bentuk kata kerja yang benar.)

1. "Annie and her brothers are at school." The correct answer is "are" because we are talking about more than one person, similar to saying "they". (Jawaban yang benar adalah "are" karena kita berbicara tentang lebih dari satu orang, sama seperti 'they'.)
2. "Either my mother or my father is coming to the meeting." This is tricky; although there are two subjects joined by "either...or," it is considered a singular subject, so "is" is correct. (Ini rumit; karena ada "either...or" maka dianggap sebagai subjek tunggal, jadi "is" benar.)
3. "The dog or the cats are outside." Although "or" is used, we look at the subject closest to the verb, which is the plural "cats," so the answer is "are". (Meskipun ada "or", kita melihat subjek terdekat dengan kata kerja, yaitu "cats" yang jamak, jadi jawabannya "are".)
4. "Either my shoes or your coat is always on the floor." The closest subject to the verb is the singular "coat," so we choose "is". (Subjek terdekat adalah "coat" yang tunggal, jadi pilih "is".)
5. "George and Tamara don't want to see that movie." We use "don't" because "and" combines two people, making it plural like "they". (Kita menggunakan "don't" karena "and" menggabungkan dua orang menjadi jamak.)
6. "Benito doesn't know the answer." (Sama seperti subjek 'he' tunggal.)

7. "One of my sisters is going on a trip to France." The subject is "One," which is singular, so we use "is". (Subjeknya adalah "One" yang tunggal, jadi kita pakai "is".)
8. "The man with all the birds lives on my street." The subject is "The man," which is third-person singular, so we add 's' to the verb to make it "lives". (Subjeknya adalah "The man" yang merupakan orang ketiga tunggal, jadi tambah 's' menjadi "lives".)
9. "The movie, including all the reviews, takes about two hours to watch." The subject is "The movie," so we use "takes". (Subjeknya adalah "The movie", jadi pakai "takes".)
10. "The players, as well as the captain, want to win." The subject is "The players" (plural like "they"), so the verb is "want". (Subjeknya "The players" yang jamak, jadi "want".)
11. "Either answer is acceptable." (Salah satu jawaban dapat diterima menggunakan "is".)
12. "Every one of those books is fiction." The subject is "every one," which is singular. (Subjeknya "every one" yang tunggal.)
13. "Nobody knows the trouble I've seen." (Menggunakan knows tunggal.)
14. "Is the news on at five or six?" The word "news" is singular, so the answer is "is". ("News" itu tunggal, jadi "is".)
15. "Mathematics is John's favorite subject, while civics is Andrea's favorite subject." Words like mathematics and civics have an 's' but are singular subjects. (Mathematics dan civics berakhiran 's' tapi merupakan subjek tunggal.)
16. "Eight dollars is the price of a movie these days." (Delapan dolar adalah subjek tunggal.)
17. "Are the tweezers in this drawer?" A pair of tweezers is considered plural. (Sepasang pinset dianggap jamak.)
18. "Your pants are at the cleaners." "Pants" is also plural. ("Pants" atau celana juga jamak.)
19. "There were 15 candies in that bag. Now there is only one left." (Menggunakan "were" untuk jamak dan "is" untuk tunggal.)
20. "The committee debates these questions carefully." (Panitia memperdebatkan menggunakan tunggal.)
21. "The committee members lead very different lives in private." (Menggunakan lead jamak.)
22. "The Prime Minister, together with his wife, greets the press cordially." The subject is "The Prime Minister," so we use "greet". (Subjeknya "The Prime Minister", jadi pakai "greet".)
23. "All of the CDs, even the scratched one, are in this case." Since CDs is plural, we use "are". (Karena CDs jamak, pakai "are".)

Video 20b: Prepositional Phrases and Subject-Verb Agreement

Welcome back. As we know, a subject and verb must agree in number. For example: "My sister is married" uses a singular verb because the subject "sister" is singular. "My sisters are married" uses a plural verb for a plural subject. "My brother and my sister are single" uses a plural verb because the two subjects joined by "and" make it plural. (Terjemahan: Selamat datang kembali. Seperti yang kita tahu, subjek dan kata kerja harus sesuai dalam jumlahnya. Contoh: "My sister is married" menggunakan kata kerja tunggal karena subjek "sister" tunggal. "My sisters are married" menggunakan kata kerja jamak karena subjeknya jamak. "My brother and my sister are single" menggunakan kata kerja jamak karena 2 subjek yang digabung dengan "and" dianggap jamak.)

1. Identifying Prepositional Phrases

- People often get confused in determining the subject and choosing the right verb when a prepositional phrase appears at the beginning of a sentence. A preposition is a word that shows position, such as: under, above, on, in, to, and by.
- A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with a pronoun, noun, or noun phrase. It is a phrase, not a clause, so it does not have a subject. Examples include: "From Mexico City," "On January the first," "To my best friend," "By bus," "After her," "in the morning," "of my sisters," "around the room," "because of the weather," and "at himself". All of these are considered prepositional phrases.

(Terjemahan: Orang-orang sering bingung menentukan subjek dan kata kerja yang tepat ketika ada frasa preposisi di awal kalimat. Preposisi (kata depan) adalah kata yang menunjukkan posisi, seperti: under, above, on, in, to, dan by. Frasa preposisi adalah sekelompok kata yang dimulai dengan preposisi dan diakhiri dengan kata ganti, kata benda, atau frasa kata benda. Ini adalah frasa, bukan klausa, jadi tidak memiliki subjek. Contohnya termasuk: "From Mexico City," "On January the first," "To my best friend," "By bus," "After her," "in the morning," "of my sisters," "around the room," "because of the weather," dan "at himself". Semua ini dianggap frasa preposisi.)

2. Eliminating Prepositional Phrases

Sometimes, a prepositional phrase comes after the subject of a sentence, but it is not considered part of the subject when determining which verb to choose. You must mentally cross it out when figuring out the verb. (Terjemahan: Terkadang, frasa preposisi muncul setelah subjek kalimat, tetapi tidak dianggap sebagai bagian dari subjek saat menentukan kata kerja mana yang harus dipilih. Kalian harus menghapusnya secara mental saat mencari tahu kata kerja yang tepat.)

- "One of my sisters is also a singer." The prepositional phrase is "of my sisters." You should mentally cross it out and just look at the word "One," making the correct verb "is". If you don't cross it out, you might mistakenly look at "sisters" and choose "are". (Kalian harus mencoret "of my sisters" dan hanya melihat kata "One," sehingga kata kerja yang benar adalah "is".)
- "One of my brothers is a musician." Cross out "of my brothers". (Hapus "of my brothers".)
- "Neither of my parents is living." Cross out "of my parents" and use the singular "is". (Hapus "of my parents" dan pakai "is".)
- "Much of my time is spent in the library." Cross out "of my time" to match the singular "much". (Hapus "of my time" agar sesuai dengan "much" yang tunggal.)

- "Each of my brothers wants his own car." (Masing-masing saudara menginginkan mobilnya.)
- "Either is able to babysit for you tonight." (Siapapun bisa mengasuh.)
- "Both of my parents are teachers." Cross out "of my parents" leaving the plural "Both". (Hapus "of my parents" menyisakan "Both" jamak.)
- "Several of the teachers speak my language." Ignore the phrase "of the teachers" to get "Several speak". (Abaikan frasanya menjadi "Several speak".)

3. Nouns with "Some," "All," "Most," "A lot," and "None"

Some words can be singular or plural, which can make it a little difficult. In these cases, you must refer to the noun within the prepositional phrase. (Terjemahan: Beberapa kata bisa tunggal atau jamak, yang mungkin membuat sedikit sulit. Dalam hal ini, kalian harus mengacu pada kata benda dalam frasa preposisi.)

- "Some of the money was missing." We ignore the phrase but we know "money" is an uncountable, singular noun, so we use "was". (Kita tahu "money" adalah kata benda tak terhitung dan tunggal, jadi kita gunakan "was".)
- "Some of the students were missing." We refer to the plural "students," so we use "were". (Kita mengacu pada "students" yang jamak, jadi "were".)
- "All of my time is spent in the library." "Time" is uncountable and singular, so we use "is". ("Time" tidak dapat dihitung dan tunggal, jadi pakai "is".)
- "All of my brothers are singers." We refer to the plural "brothers," so we use "are". (Mengacu pada "brothers" yang jamak, jadi pakai "are".)
- Words like "most," "a lot," and "none" can also be singular or plural depending on the noun in the prepositional phrase. (Kata-kata seperti "most," "a lot," dan "none" juga bisa tunggal atau jamak bergantung pada kata benda dalam frasa preposisi.)

Video 20c: "Either" and "Neither"

Welcome back. Let's discuss subject-verb agreement with "either" and "neither". They are masters of disguise because they can act as pronouns, in which case they are always singular. Alternatively, they can be part of the two-part correlative conjunctions "either...or" and "neither...nor," which connect two subjects. In this case, the verb must agree with the subject that is closer to it. (Terjemahan: Selamat datang kembali. Mari kita bahas kesesuaian subjek dan kata kerja dengan "either" dan "neither". Mereka adalah penyamar yang ahli karena bisa menjadi kata ganti, yang maknanya selalu tunggal. Atau, mereka dapat menjadi bagian dari konjungsi dua bagian "either...or" dan "neither...nor," yang menghubungkan 2 subjek. Dalam hal ini, kata kerja harus sesuai dengan subjek yang lebih dekat dengannya.)

Quiz: "Either" and "Neither"

1. "Neither of them knows how to get to the red deer." We cross out the prepositional phrase "of them," and "neither" as a pronoun is always singular, so the answer is "knows". (Kita mencoret frasa preposisi "of them", dan "neither" selalu tunggal, jadi jawabannya "knows".)

2. "It was hard for them to get there because neither Kate nor her friends know how to drive." Because of "neither...nor," we look at the closest subject, "her friends" (plural like "they"), so we use "know". (Karena "neither...nor", kita melihat subjek terdekat yaitu "her friends" (jamak), jadi kita gunakan "know".)
3. "Usually either my niece or my nephew picks me up at the airport." Using "either...or," we look at the singular "nephew" (like "he"), so we use "picks". (Dengan "either...or", kita melihat "nephew" yang tunggal, jadi kita gunakan "picks".)
4. "Does either of you speak Russian?" We ignore "of you," making the singular pronoun "either" take "does". (Kita abaikan "of you", sehingga kata ganti tunggal "either" menggunakan "does".)
5. "Did you know that neither Norway nor Switzerland is in the European Union?" Because of "neither...nor" and singular subjects, we use "is". (Karena "neither...nor" dan subjek tunggal, kita gunakan "is".)
6. "Either Tracy or her sisters were supposed to prepare dinner, but nothing is ready." The closest subject is "her sisters," so we use "were". (Subjek terdekat adalah "her sisters", jadi gunakan "were".)
7. "Neither of my daughters looks old enough for that amusement ride." We cross out "of my daughters," leaving the singular pronoun "Neither," so we use "looks". (Kita hapus "of my daughters", menyisakan kata ganti tunggal "Neither", jadi gunakan "looks".)
8. "It's a pity that neither the pink nor the white comes in size 16." With "neither...nor" and a singular closest subject, the verb is "comes". (Dengan "neither...nor" dan subjek terdekat tunggal, kata kerjanya "comes".)
9. "Either he or you have to clean up this room." Because of "either...or," the verb agrees with the closest subject "you," so we use "have". (Karena "either...or", kata kerja sesuai dengan subjek terdekat "you", jadi gunakan "have".)
10. "Either is fine with me." "Either" acts as a singular pronoun subject, so we use the singular verb "is". ("Either" bertindak sebagai kata ganti tunggal, jadi gunakan kata kerja tunggal "is".)

Video 20d: Advanced Agreement Rules

Welcome back. We will look at a few more rules related to subject and verb agreement. We have already covered the basic rule that a singular subject takes a singular verb, while a plural subject takes a plural verb, and we discussed eliminating prepositional phrases. For example, in "The list of items is on the desk," we eliminate "of items" to determine that the singular subject is "list," meaning we need the singular verb "is". Always remember the trick to eliminate the prepositional phrase to find the subject. (Terjemahan: Selamat datang kembali. Kita akan melihat beberapa aturan lagi yang berkaitan dengan kesesuaian kata kerja dan subjek. Kita sudah membahas aturan dasar bahwa subjek tunggal membutuhkan kata kerja tunggal, sedangkan subjek jamak membutuhkan kata kerja jamak, dan kita telah membahas penghapusan frasa preposisi. Contohnya, pada "The list of items is on the desk", kita mengeliminasi "of items" untuk menentukan bahwa subjek tunggalnya adalah "list", yang) berarti kita butuh kata kerja tunggal "is". Selalu ingat trik menghapus frasa preposisi untuk menentukan subjeknya.)

Rules 1 to 6

- Rule 1: A subject will come before a phrase beginning with 'of'. For example, "A bouquet of yellow roses lends color and fragrance to the room." We use "lends" and not "lend" because the subject is the singular "bouquet," not "roses". (Aturan 1: Subjek akan muncul sebelum frasa yang dimulai dengan 'of'. Contohnya, "A bouquet of yellow roses lends color and fragrance to the room." Kita menggunakan "lends" dan bukan "lend" karena subjeknya adalah "bouquet" yang tunggal, bukan "roses".)
- Rule 2: Two singular subjects connected by "either...or" or "neither...nor" require a singular verb. Examples: "My aunt or my uncle is arriving by train today," "Neither Juan nor Carmen is available," and "Either Keanu or Casey is helping with stage decorations today". (Aturan 2: Dua subjek tunggal yang dihubungkan dengan "either...or" atau "neither...nor" membutuhkan kata kerja tunggal. Contoh: "My aunt or my uncle is arriving by train today", "Neither Juan nor Carmen is available", dan "Either Keanu or Casey is helping with stage decorations today".)
- Rule 3: The verb in an "either...or" or "neither...nor" sentence agrees with the noun or pronoun closest to it. In "Neither the plates nor the serving bowl goes on that shelf," the closest subject is the singular "bowl," so we use "goes". Conversely, in "Neither the serving bowl nor the plates go on that shelf," the closest subject is the plural "plates," so we use "go". (Aturan 3: Kata kerja pada kalimat "either...or" atau "neither...nor" sesuai dengan kata benda dan kata ganti yang paling dekat dengannya. Pada "Neither the plates nor the serving bowl goes on that shelf", subjek terdekat adalah "bowl" (tunggal), jadi kita pakai "goes". Sebaliknya, pada "Neither the serving bowl nor the plates go on that shelf", subjek terdekat adalah "plates" (jamak), jadi kita pakai "go".)
- Rule 4: As a general rule, use a plural verb for two or more subjects when they are connected by "and". For example, "A car and a bike are my means of transportation". However, there are exceptions for compound nouns that are considered singular. For example, "Breaking and entering is against the law," and "The bed and breakfast was charming". (Aturan 4: Sebagai aturan umum, gunakan kata kerja jamak untuk dua atau lebih subjek saat dihubungkan dengan "and". Contohnya, "A car and a bike are my means of transportation". Namun, ada pengecualian untuk kata benda majemuk yang dianggap tunggal. Contohnya, "Breaking and entering is against the law" dan "The bed and breakfast was charming".)
- Rule 5a: Sometimes the subject is separated from the verb by words such as "along with," "as well as," or "besides". These words and phrases are not part of the subject, so ignore them and use a singular verb when the subject is singular. Examples include: "The politician, along with the newsmen, is expected shortly" (ignore the phrase, the subject is "politician"), and "Excitement, as well as nervousness, is the cause of her shaking" (the subject is "excitement"). (Aturan 5a: Terkadang, subjek dipisahkan dari kata kerja dengan kata-kata seperti "along with", "as well as", atau "besides". Kata dan frasa ini bukan bagian dari subjek, jadi abaikan dan gunakan kata kerja tunggal ketika subjeknya tunggal. Contohnya: "The politician, along with the newsmen, is expected shortly" (abaikan frasa, subjeknya "politician"), dan

"Excitement, as well as nervousness, is the cause of her shaking" (subjeknya "excitement").)

- Rule 5b: Parentheses are not part of the subject. For example, "Joe (and his trusty mutt) was always welcome." Ignore the parentheses just like a prepositional phrase, making Joe the singular subject. (Aturan 5b: Tanda kurung bukan bagian dari subjek. Contohnya, "Joe (and his trusty mutt) was always welcome." Abaikan tanda kurung seperti frasa preposisi, sehingga Joe adalah subjek tunggalnya.)
 - Rule 6: In sentences beginning with "here" or "there," the true subject follows the verb. In "There are four hurdles to jump," the subject is the plural "hurdles," so the verb is "are". In "There is a high hurdle to jump," the subject is the singular "hurdle," so the verb is "is". In "Here are the keys," the subject is the plural "keys". Note that using "there's" (short for "there is") with a plural subject, like "There's a lot of people here today," is a bad habit. It might be acceptable in informal spoken English, but it is incorrect in writing. (Aturan 6: Dalam kalimat yang dimulai dengan "here" atau "there", subjek yang sebenarnya mengikuti kata kerja. Pada "There are four hurdles to jump", subjeknya adalah "hurdles" (jamak), jadi kata kerjanya "are". Pada "There is a high hurdle to jump", subjeknya "hurdle" (tunggal), jadi kata kerjanya "is". Pada "Here are the keys", subjeknya adalah "keys" (jamak). Perhatikan bahwa penggunaan "there's" dengan subjek jamak, seperti "There's a lot of people here today", adalah kebiasaan buruk. Ini mungkin boleh saja dalam bahasa lisan informal, tetapi tidak benar dalam bahasa tertulis.)

Video 20e: More Rules and Quiz

Welcome back. Let's go over a few more rules and then take a quiz. (Terjemahan: Selamat datang kembali. Mari kita bahas beberapa aturan lagi lalu kita kerjakan kuis.)

Rules 7 to 10

- Rule 7: Use a singular verb for distances, periods of time, sums of money, and so on when considered as a single unit. For example, "Three miles is too far to walk." Even though "miles" has an 's', it is considered a single unit. The same applies to "five years" and "ten dollars". (Aturan 7: Gunakan kata kerja tunggal untuk jarak, jangka waktu, jumlah uang, dan sebagainya bila dianggap sebagai satu unit. Contoh: "Three miles is too far to walk." Meskipun "miles" memiliki 's', itu dianggap sebagai subjek tunggal. Hal yang sama berlaku untuk "five years" dan "ten dollars".)
- Rule 8: For words that indicate portions, such as "a lot," "the majority," "some," or "all," the verb must agree with the noun after "of". For example, in "A lot of the pie has disappeared," we use a singular verb because "pie" is singular. Note that while the SAT testing service considers the word "none" to be strictly singular, the Merriam-Webster Dictionary states that "none" has been both singular and plural since Old English. If the context seems singular, use a singular verb; if it seems plural, use a plural verb. (Aturan 8: Untuk kata-kata yang menunjukkan bagian, seperti "a lot", "the majority", "some", atau "all", kata kerja harus sesuai dengan kata benda setelah "of". Contohnya, pada "A lot of the pie has disappeared", kita menggunakan kata kerja tunggal karena "pie" itu tunggal. Catatan bahwa meskipun layanan pengujian SAT menganggap kata "none" benar-benar tunggal, Kamus Merriam-Webster menyatakan bahwa "none" bisa tunggal dan jamak sejak bahasa Inggris kuno. Jika konteksnya tampak tunggal, gunakan kata kerja tunggal; jika tampak jamak, gunakan kata kerja jamak.)

- Rule 9: For collective nouns like "group," "jury," "family," "audience," and "population," the verb can be singular or plural depending on the writer's intent. For example, you can say "All my family has arrived" or "All my family have arrived". However, anyone using a plural verb with a collective noun must be careful to be consistent. An incorrect sentence often heard is, "The staff is deciding how they want to vote". The problem is the inconsistency between the singular "is" and the plural pronoun "they". It should be either entirely singular or entirely plural, such as "The staff members are deciding how they want to vote". (Aturan 9: Untuk kata benda kolektif seperti "group", "jury", "family", "audience", dan "population", kata kerja bisa tunggal atau jamak tergantung pada maksud penulis. Contohnya, kalian bisa mengatakan "All my family has arrived" atau "All my family have arrived". Namun, siapa pun yang menggunakan kata kerja jamak dengan kata benda kolektif harus konsisten. Kalimat salah yang sering terdengar adalah, "The staff is deciding how they want to vote". Masalahnya adalah ketidakkonsistenan antara "is" yang tunggal dan kata ganti "they" yang jamak. Seharusnya sepenuhnya tunggal atau sepenuhnya jamak, seperti "The staff members are deciding how they want to vote".)
- Rule 10: The word "were" replaces "was" in sentences that express a wish or are contrary to fact. For example: "If Joe were here, you'd be staring". We use "were" instead of "was" because Joe is not actually here; it shows the subjunctive mood used for hypothetical situations. Another example is "I wish it were Friday". We also use the plural verb form with a singular subject to express the same subjunctive meaning, such as "She requested that he raise his hand". (Aturan 10: Kata "were" menggantikan "was" dalam kalimat yang menyatakan harapan atau bertentangan dengan fakta. Contohnya: "If Joe were here, you'd be staring". Kita menggunakan "were" bukan "was" karena Joe sebenarnya tidak ada di sini; ini menunjukkan bentuk pengandaian untuk situasi hipotetis. Contoh lain adalah "I wish it were Friday". Kita juga menggunakan bentuk kata kerja jamak dengan subjek tunggal untuk makna pengandaian yang sama, seperti "She requested that he raise his hand".)

Subject and Verb Agreement Quiz

1. A) Everyone has a green color. B) Everyone have a green color. Answer A is correct because "Everyone" is singular. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A karena "Everyone" itu tunggal.)
2. A) The singer, along with a few others, play... B) The singer, along with a few others, plays... Answer B is correct because the subject is "singer". (Jawaban yang benar adalah B karena subjeknya adalah "singer" yang tunggal.)
3. A) Sandals and towels are essential gear... B) Sandals and towels is essential gear... Answer A is correct because they are two separate plural entities. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A karena sandal dan handuk adalah dua entitas jamak yang terpisah.)
4. A) The president or the vice president are speaking today. B) The president or the vice president is speaking today. Answer B is correct because "or" separates singular subjects. (Jawaban yang benar adalah B karena "or" memisahkan subjek tunggal.)

5. A) Both Casey and Marie pay the employees this afternoon. B) Both Casey and Marie pays... Answer A is correct. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A.)
 6. A) Either the sculptures or the paintings are in the museum today. Answer A is correct; it agrees with the closest subject, "paintings". (Jawaban yang benar adalah A; sesuai dengan subjek terdekat yaitu "paintings".)
 7. A) The coat or the hats are in that closet. B) The coat or the hats is in that closet. Answer A is correct; the verb agrees with the closest subject, "hats". (Jawaban yang benar adalah A; kata kerja sesuai dengan subjek terdekat, yaitu "hats".)
 8. A) Neither she nor I is getting the lunch special. B) Neither she nor I am getting the lunch special. Answer B is correct; the verb agrees with "I". (Jawaban yang benar adalah B; kata kerja sesuai dengan "I".)
 9. A) Each of the dancers twirls brilliantly. B) Each of the dancers twirl brilliantly. Answer A is correct; we remove the prepositional phrase and "Each" is singular. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A; kita hapus frasa preposisi dan "Each" adalah tunggal.)
 10. A) Mustard greens are my favorite vegetable. B) Mustard greens is... Answer A is correct. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A.)
 11. A) Everybody at the party was enjoying the food. B) Everybody at the party were... Answer A is correct. (Jawaban yang benar adalah A.)

Video 20f: Paragraph Correction Exercises

Welcome back. We are going to do another exercise on subject and verb agreement from page 97 of the PDF "English Grammar for the Utterly Confused". The instruction is to correct all the agreement errors in the paragraphs provided. We will read the paragraphs together and correct the mistakes. (Terjemahan: Selamat datang kembali. Kita akan mengerjakan latihan lainnya tentang kesesuaian subjek dan kata kerja dari halaman 97 PDF "English Grammar for the Utterly Confused". Instruksinya adalah memperbaiki semua kesalahan dalam kesesuaian di paragraf tersebut. Mari kita baca bersama dan perbaiki kesalahannya.)

Case 1: The Doughnut Truck

Let's break down the corrections:

- In the first sentence, "they tooks" is an agreement error; it should be "they took". Also, since the police are speaking, we need quotation marks around the statement.
- In the second sentence, we cannot say "the truck were parked"; it must be "the truck was parked at a convenience store with its rear doors open and its engine running, while a delivery man carried doughnuts inside". We also need quotation marks here, along with a comma after "running".
- In the third sentence, there are no subject-verb agreement errors, but again, quotation marks are missing for "he said".

- Next, "when they was spotted" should be "when they were spotted by police responding to reports of a dangerous driver who was losing his doughnuts".
- Then, "A passenger were captured" should be "A passenger was captured. But the driver whose name was not released, ran away".
- Finally, "Their motive... were unclear" should be "was unclear". The last sentence finally uses correct quotation marks.

(Terjemahan Pembahasan Kasus 1: Mari kita jabarkan perbaikannya:

- Pada kalimat pertama, "they tooks" adalah kesalahan kesesuaian; seharusnya "they took". Selain itu, karena polisi yang berbicara, kita butuh tanda kutip.
- Pada kalimat kedua, kita tidak bisa mengatakan "the truck were parked"; seharusnya "the truck was parked at a convenience store with its rear doors open and its engine running, while a delivery man carried doughnuts inside". Kita juga butuh tanda kutip di sini, beserta koma setelah "running".
- Pada kalimat ketiga, tidak ada kesalahan kesesuaian, tetapi lagi-lagi kurang tanda kutip.
- Selanjutnya, "when they was spotted" seharusnya "when they were spotted by police responding to reports of a dangerous driver who was losing his doughnuts".
- Kemudian, "A passenger were captured" seharusnya "A passenger was captured. But the driver whose name was not released, ran away".
- Terakhir, "Their motive... were unclear" seharusnya "was unclear". Kalimat terakhir akhirnya menggunakan tanda kutip yang benar.)

Case 2: The Tavern

Let's break down the corrections for the second case:

- First, "A wife are" is incorrect; it should be "A wife is complaining about her husband spending all his time at the local tavern, so one night he takes her along with him". The story is told in the present tense, so the singular subject "he" takes "takes".
- Next, "he ask" should be "he asks".
- Similarly, "she reply" should be "she replies" to match the present tense.
- Then, "the husband order" becomes "the husband orders a couple of Jack Daniels and gulps his down in one go".
- Next, "His wife watch him, then take a sip... and spit it out" must be corrected to "His wife watches him, then takes a sip from her glass, and immediately spits it out".
- For her reaction, "she splutter" must be "she splutters".
- Finally, "cry the husband" becomes "cries the husband," and "you thinks" is corrected to "you think I'm out enjoying myself every night!". We will end it here; I hope this is useful. Wassalamua'laikum Warahmatullah Wabarakatuh.

(Terjemahan Pembahasan Kasus 2: Mari kita jabarkan perbaikannya untuk kasus kedua:

- Pertama, "A wife are" salah; seharusnya "A wife is complaining about her husband spending all his time at the local tavern, so one night he takes her along with him". Kisah ini diceritakan dalam present tense, jadi subjek tunggal "he" menggunakan "takes".
- Selanjutnya, "he ask" seharusnya "he asks".

- Sama halnya, "she reply" seharusnya "she replies" agar sesuai dengan present tense.
- Kemudian, "the husband order" menjadi "the husband orders a couple of Jack Daniels and gulps his down in one go".
- Selanjutnya, "His wife watch him..." harus diperbaiki menjadi "His wife watches him, then takes a sip from her glass, and immediately spits it out".
- Untuk reaksinya, "she splutter" harus menjadi "she splutters".
- Terakhir, "cry the husband" menjadi "cries the husband", dan "you thinks" diperbaiki menjadi "you think I'm out enjoying myself every night!". Kita akhiri di sini; saya harap ini bermanfaat. Wassalamua'laikum Warahmatullah Wabarakatuh.)
